Four halls only they knocked out of the diamond. Dowd, Harley and Hemphill were the only Clevelanders who could hit Seymour, but they found him often enough to score four runs The New Yorks' four errors did not influence the run getting, for Sugden caught four men attempting to steal second. PITTRBURG, Aug., 25.—Tannehill, besides pitching well after the fourth inning to-day, helped Pittsburg to defeat Boston by knocking two three-baggers which yielded three runs. McCarthy scored the winning run on Long's fumble, a sical, Bergen's bad throw and Ely's long ily. Manager Frank Selee of the Boston club denies that he has been engaged to manage the Pittsburg team next year, but says that after Oct. 15 he will be free to sign where he pleases. The score:

Prince Ranjiteinhji May Visit Us with an English Team Next Month. The cricket players of Philadelphia were thrown into an unusual state of excitement on Thursday by the receipt of a cablegram from Prince Kumar Shrie Ranjitsinhji of India, who ucceeded Dr. W. G. Grace as the foremost oricketer in the world, stating that he would make an effort to visit this country about the middle of September. The news came in the lowing message which the Prince sent from dated Cricket Clubs of Philadelphia: "Abandoned my Indian tour; will try and come Sept. 13. Will cable you definitely within a week. Regret delay in replying.

"RANJITSINHJI." Of course this means that he will be accompanied by a team of English amateurs, which will undoubtedly be a strong one. Immediately after the cablegram was received the Associated Cricket Clubs of Philadelphia met and a return message was sent to the Prince. advising him that his expected visit would be a welcome one. Then preparations were made to receive the Prince should his next cablegram contain definite assurances that he would make the trip.

It was decided that the first game with Staten Island, which is scheduled for Sept. 15, would be played under any circumstances, but the second match with All New York, in case the Prince decides to visit this country, would have to be abandoned. Before the meeting adjourned suitable dates for the games with the Prince's team were discussed. After due consideration the following dates were agreed upon: Sept. 22, 23 and 25, with the Philadelphia colts; Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 2. with All Philadelphia; Oct. 6, 7 and 0, with All America. The first game will be played at Elmwood and the remaining two games at Germantown and Merion, although it was not settled in what order they would be played. All these arrangements were made under the supposition that Ranjitsinhil's visit was as

The Indian Prince was first asked to visit this country in 1807, but as he had already arranged to go to Australia with Stoddard's team he could not comply. Last year he re mained in India, but this season he returned to England. While it is not known who will accompany him on the trip, there is but little doubt that he will bring the strongest aggregation of English amateurs possible.

Continuing their match against All-Toronto, they gained a creditable victory by 25 runs. In this result the good batting of M. B. Cobb proved a most important factor. He played a splendid inning of 50, in which he showed good defense with hard nitting ability. Tyers also played well for 36, and G. A. Gittens added 31. The other double scorers were: T. J. Clarke, F. W. T. Btiles and J. F. Curran. For the Canadian team H. J. Tucker played in good form for 50; A. G. Chambers added 43, while J. L. Counsell and G. S. BIG FIELD FOR FUTURITY.

OPEN OUTLOOK FOR AMERICA'.
PRINCIPAL RACING CLASSIC.

R. Reene Strengthens His Chances by Purchasing Chacernac-David Garrick Accepts With Top Weight-Brigadler Gets in Light-Fine Card for Sheepshead Bay. The opening of the Coney Island Jockey Club's fall meeting at picturesque Sheepshead Bay this afternoon will be signalized by the Brighton, Eng., to the Secretary of the Assorunning of the Futurity, the most classic, if not the richest juvenile event on the American Racing Schedule. The monetary value at stake this year may not compare favorably with the seasons when Potomac and His Highness won over $60,000, but as a speculative > Futurity history. There are over twenty possible starters named on the official list sent out last night and if jockeys can be found for all of them the indications are that there will be few withdrawals unless the weather clerk makes further trouble before the race is called.

medium to-day's event eclipses anything in

The biggest fields heretofore were in 1899 and 1898 respectively when Chaos and Martimas each beat twenty-two opponents. Twenty-one runners faced the flag in 1891 when His Highness won and there were twenty starters in '93 and '95 when Domino and Requital were the respective winners. In the '97 race L'Alouette outfooted seventeen rivals. The race riginally was run over a full six furlongs, but in Morello's year the distance was reduced to what is known as the present Futurity course, the official measurement of which is 1.263 yards I foot, or 170 feet less than three-quarters of a mile. Over this shorter route the fastest time yet made in the event was 1:10 by Ogden when he beat Ornament, Rhodermond and seven others.

The next best performances from a timing standpoint were by The Butterflies, when she beat Brandywine, Agitator and fourteen others, and by L'Alouette, when she outfooted Lydian, Uriel and fifteen others. Both fillies went the route in 1:11. The best time over the old course was 1:14 1-5, by Potomac. when he finished in front of a field of fifteen with Masher and Strathmeath, as his nearest opponents.

For to-day's event, the candidates have been tried out with such equable results that few of the ahrewdest horsomen will venture to select a winner. The prevailing tendency, however, seems to support the chances of Chacornao, the son of Juvenni-Lattita, who graduated out of the maiden class at Baratoga in such brilliant style last week. He has gone on improving since, and, with McCue in the saddle, is expected to come down the hill in rare style. The youngster ran at the Springs in the colors of James Rowe, but yesterday he was purchased by James R. Keene and will run for the big prize in the popular white and blue polks dots of the Wall street herseman.

Mr. Keene has two others in the race, Virginia Earle and Doublet, to be ridden respectively by Spencer and Maher, and the combination will probably catch the public fancy. The candidates on the eligible list likely to start and the conditions for the race are as follows:

By subscription of $20 each, or only $10 if the money be sent with entry, for marce covered in 1800, and a further subscription of $70 each for the produce of such marce unless struck out by July 16, 1868, or $1.00 unless struck out by July 16, 1868, or $1.00 unless struck out by July 16, 1868, or $1.00 unless struck out by July 16, 1868, or $1.00 unless struck out by July 16, 1868, all stairers to pay $280 additional, all of which shall go to the second and third horses as further provided. The Consy Island Jockey Club to add $3,750, the second to receive $1,000 of the added meney and two-thirds of the starting money; the third $600 of the added money and one third of the starting money. The breedors of the winner, of the second horse and of the third horse, namely, the owner of the marc at the time of entry to receive $2,000, $1,250 and $500 of the added money, respectively, whether they be the owners of the horse when the race takes place or not. By filing prior to July 15, 1808, with the Concy Island Jockey Club an accepted transfer of the produce, with its engagement in this stake, accompanied with all forfeits to date, the original subscriber or transferes due before the race the entry shall not be rolessed from any Islahlity as to the engagement of the produce, $800 the t e has shown. The sunshine of yesterday at Sheepshead The sunstance of yesterday at Sheepshead Bay brought comfort to many horsemen who feered that the condition of the track might affect the running. The going improved rapidly during the afternoon and unless there is a further downpour the indications are that the track will be good and safe although possibly on the slow side. The doubts entertained on this point and the possibility of a delay at the post aid to the uncertainty of the outlook, and until movements in the ring furnish some clus the regulars are inclined to call it, "even up, and take your pick." Meanwhile nothing is being left undone by Superintendent Clarks to have the course as nearly perfect as possible, while the grounds have never looked better. Horsemen are regretting that Win. Hendris, the Canadian aportman who scored with Martimas last year, is not represented in the Funcient with the course but represented in the Funcient with the course of the content of the conten mas last year, is not represented in the Fu-burity this time, but many who profited by the success of the Canadian coil a year ago are in-clined to follow his rider. Laverock Wins the Spencer Handican i the Wind Up at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, Aug. 25.-The twenty-seven days meeting of the Saratoga Racing Association came to an end to-day with clear and pleasant weather and a big crowd on hand to see the wind up. Light fields prevailed in all of the races except one, but the sport was good, a though there were many upsets. The principal events were the Spencer Handleap for three-year-olds and upwards and the Beverwick Steeplechase. The last named was a big disappointment, for Ben Eder, Col. Bartlett, Westown, Julius Caesar and Semper Ego were withdrawn. This left only Dr. Catlett in the race, and he had only to go to the post and walk over the course. Five responded to the bugler's call in the Spencer Handicap, the only absences being The Brighton cup winner, Bangle was made the favorite. His showing was poor He was running in front for six furlongs and then tired badly. His Lordship then took up the running and led into the stretch, where Laverock went to the front and won, driving by a length from Alpen, who was a head before Laverockwent to the front and won, driving by a length from Alpen, who was a head before His Lordship.

Golden Rule was the public's choice in the opening event, with Frandoo and May Jane well backed, but all three falled to reward their supporters. The race was an upset of the biggest kind. After thirty minutes' delay at the post, May Jane got off well and led to the stretch, where she tired, and this enable the 30 to I chance Lauretta to get up to her and win by a length and a half in a drive with May Jane second.

May Jane second.

Tragedian was made a 4-to-5 favorite in the second, but his backers never had a chance, McCue took matters easily during the race and never made a move until the last sixteenth where he made a weak effort. The race was won by Maurice who beat Wolhurst out a head in a drive. Dave S, was the choice over the six in the third race, and after leading all the way he managed to last long enough to get the money in a drive by a neck from Lillian Belle. Summary:

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Lord Zeni won the last race at Harlem today from a field of fair sprinters. Everett rode the horse Wednesday, and was ruled off for pulling him. The field Lord Zeni beat to-day was a better one, and his winning is a vindication of the Harlem Judges in their action. The card was bad to-day and only one favorite won. Summary:

CREEDON STOPS MORRIS.

Early Stage of a Fierce Encounter at the Broadway A. C.—Martin and Car-roll Win Preliminaries—McCoy's Speech. In a flerce battle while it lasted, Dan Creedon, the Australian middleweight, succeeded in putting an effective stop to Fred Morris. Black Cyclone," who recently returned from England, in the sixth round at the Broadway A. C. last night. Morris was in serious distress during the last three rounds, but gamely accepted all that his opponent could hand over. He wasn't knocked out in the last round but was so hopelessly beaten that the referee interfered for the sake of fair play. Creedon was in trouble, too, at times, but his condition helped him out. His left hand was injured at an early period, which was given as a reason why he did not do the trick in the third round when he had Morris in Queer street. The erowd amounted to about 3,000 spectators and they got a good run for their money.

Two colored heavyweights. Walter Johnson of Philadelphia and "Denver Ed." Martin, put up the preliminary, which was expected to go twenty rounds. Johnson was suffering from stage fright in the first two rounds, and showed a tendency to stay incorners. Martin doing all the leading. In the third and fourth Martin had such an easy time that the crowd howled. "Take 'em off!" Johnson was a perfect punching bag in the fifth, but he wasn't a quitter, Again in the sixth the Philadelphian took all the punching, while in the seventh he was such an easy mark that the referee, John White, got between the puglists and declared

A second bout, six rounds at catch weights. was put on to satisfy the wishes of the crowd. The principals were Percy McIntyre, formerly of the amateur ranks, and Frank Carroll, colored, of Chiengo, Percy did a lot of wild rushing and swinging in the first three rounds, but Carroll who was clever, avoided him neatly and landed enough lefts to raise a bump under the right eye. In the fourth and fifth Carroll had the poluts, although McIntyre worked hard and fast. The last round was about even. Carroll got the verdict, Percy's friends hooting.

The betting on Creedon and Morris was at even money, although the majority of sports liked the Australian's chances, Creedon's seconds were Benny Murphy, Sam Fitzpatrick, Johnny Gorman and Tom Lees, Morris had three handlers, Jack Dougherty, Charley Miner and his trainer "Ed," Morris saying he didn't know his last name. Kid McCoy and Jeff Thorne were introduced with the an nouncement that they would fight at the Broadway Club on Sept. 5. In response to a request for a few remarks McCoy said:

"I was knocked out in Chicago the other night by McCormick through my own carelessness. I think I will meet McCormick at the Lenox A. C. next month and we will then find out whether it was a lucky punch or not."

The California heavy-weight, Joe Kennedy was also introduced and was well received. Before Morris and Creedon shook hands 100 to 70 was offered on the latter with few Morris started the fight with a rush, landing couple of lefts in the wind. He followed with another rush, driving Dan to the ropes. Then the Australian mixed it and with a heavy smash in the jaw he forced the colored man to a clinch. Creedon looked to be in excellent shape and showed that he had his generalship with him. Morris received another joit on the vital spot a moment before time was up and was unsteady in the legs.

Morris began rushing again in the second but Creedon met him with accuracy and force. Morris got another shaking up before the bell. Once more in the third Morris dashed at the Australian with both hands flying like hammers. He reached the stomach with his left. and put a couple of rights to the neck. Then Creedon mixed it, throwing in right and left wings. Morris was floored twice, and got up each time groggy, his face covered with white resin. Morris was also bleeding from the month : but in spite of Creedon's almost super human efforts, he fought back like a demon.

Creedon was exhausted from these efforts when he came out for the fourth, while Morris toed the scratch in surprisingly good shape. They promptly got into a mix-up, and both de ivered staggering blows on the law. Creedor whose nose began to bleed now, was very slow in his attack, Morris jabbing him in the face and stomach at long range. Morris was better off when they sat down

Credon began the fifth with a hard left hander under the chis. Morris wabbled but came back with vicious swings on the head. Creedon was still slow, but whenever he landed a punch it had all his weight behind it, with the result that the "Oyclone" was tired and on the run when time was up. Morris rushed in the sixth and drove Creedor to a corner with punches in the jaw. Creedon railled and literally punched his man into a painless state on the ropes. Morris was so fought back, instinctively, until he had Orec den's face covered with blood. Creedon finally got the "Cyclone" with his hands down in a corner and rained punches on Morris's face and neck until the latter fell over backward from sheer exhaustion. The referee then decided that Creedon was the winner. The time of the round was two minutes and forty sec-

It was said after the fight that Oreedon broke his left hand in the second round.

Summer Resort Professionals Object to Open Championship Dates.

On the summer greens, whether maintained by clubs or hotels, the professionals have only from June 15 to Oct. 1 in which to do business The summer season, however, usually makes up in activity for its brief duration. The professionals who are located at such greens, among them the Fitziohn brothers, Mungo Park, Alexander Finiay, Robert Shiels, A. Ricketts, John Barker, "Jack" Tucker and Val Flood-all realize that they must make hay while the sun shines, for unless in luck enough to secure a winter engagement, each has nine months of dull business to face during the year. There is consequently a feeling among those engaged at summer links that they cannot afford to attend the open championship at Baltimore this year, for the dates, Sept. 14 and 15, fall in during their busy season. John D. Dunn, who has been making the circuit of the Adirondack links, has learned that the great majority of the local professionals will not enter on this account at Baltimore. Arthur H. Fenn has frankly announced that he will be too busy teaching to play. much as he would like to do so, while it is probable that the Fitzjohns will also stay

The professionals dissatisfied at the dates are talking of asking the U. S. G. A. to postpone the open championship until October. Such an act, in the opinion of those who re member the peculiar attitude of the clubs toward the event at the annual meeting of the U. S. G. A., would not be a wise one and would

At the annual meeting of 1808 it was voted spring event and the amateur event should be should intervene between the two contests, The result was that the open championship was held at Myopia in June and the amateur at Morris county in September. The two brought out the fact that each had grown to be such a formidable undertaking that no club cared to take the financial re-possibility of managing either this year, even though the U.S.G.A. would give $1,000 to the club holding the amacather this year, even though the U.S. 6, A, would give $1,000 to the club holding the amateur meeting. At the annual convention of 1850 there was but one bid for the open championship, that of the Baitimore Country Club, and not a single bid for the amateur or women's championships.

The discussion on this unusual state of affairs resulted, in brief, in an entirely new departure on the part of the U.S. 6. A. This was that the national body should this year defray all the expenses of the three championships, that is, make good any losses to the clussconcerned, and that the executive committee should have the power of fixing the links and dates for each event. For one reason or another, the one club available for the amateur event was Onwentsia, but this club would only undertake to hold the event in June or July when the Lake Forest season was at its height. The bid of the Haitimore Country Club still had the right of way for the open event, but, in accordance with the existing three months clause, the acceptance of Cuwentels made it compulsory to hold the professional event in the fall. It will be seen, therefore, that this year's dates are in the nature of makeshift arrangements, and that hereafter the open event will be held annually in the early spring, when all of the professionals will have abundant leisure to attend. It would seen, therefore, inpudicious to make any profess at this time regarding the dates selected. In apite of the dissetification of the summer resort professionals, there is no doubt but that the Baltimore event will have more entries from high class professionals than any open championship yet held in this country, Nearly all the clubs, for one thing, are paying the traveiling expenses of their professionals, for, even if their man wins nothing, the experience gained by watching the contest and in the exchanging of ideas with his brother professionals, makes the club's expert a more valuable coach. Royal Ulster Yacht Club have decided to held on the links within the radius of the Metropolitan district to-day the event of special interest will be the meeting of George Low of lyker Meadow, and k. R. Wilson of Deal, on the latter links, in the first haif of a seventy-two hole match. Low is a Carnoustie player while Wilson represents the St. Andrew's school of players and is especially strong with his irons. The final round in the club championship will also be decided. The Ardisley Club championship will also be decided. The Ardisley Club championship will also be decided to-day, in addition to the handican. There will be a pick-up team match at St. Andrews. At Raltusrol the first competition for the President's Cup will be held. This trophy has been put up by Lowis P. Bayard, to be played for on the last Saturday of Angust, September and Ostober. There will be members' contests at the Crescent A. C. Marine and Field and Englewood, and, on State Pisland, there will be a match between the Harbor Hill and Crescent A. C. tems. The links of the out-of-the-city circuit, from Cape May and Atlantic to Newport, Lenox and Gar Harbor, however, will have the largest fields of players.

At the Lawrence Harbor Country Club there At the Lawrence Harbor Country Club there will be a preliminary coatest to decide who will represent the Club in the individual championship of the North Jersey Shore League, on Sept. 16. On Sept. 2 the Lawrence Harbor players will meet in an eighteen hole scratch niedni play competition, the four lowest scorers keeping on the next day at match play until but one survives, who will go to Deal. Each club in the League has been invited to soud its champion golfer to play in the indivual championship, and, presumably, the home club will also start but one player. On Labor Day there will be a general handleap for the women and men at Lawrence Harbor.
